RESPONSE

Sir:

This paper responds to the Official Action dated May 14, 2002. All amendments and remarks herein are made without prejudice.

IN THE SPECIFICATION

In section 2 of the Official Action, the Examiner objects to the Abstract. The Applicant submits that the Applicant is not under any obligation to change the abstract, given that the change in the rules occurred after the filing of the patent application, and as such, the Abstract was within the guidelines at the time of filing. However, please replace the paragraphs of the abstract with the following paragraph as requested below. Marked versions of the replaced paragraphs are presented in the Appendix.

Please replace the Abstract with the following paragraph

BI Cont.

Process and apparatus for communication between an Information Handling System (HIS) and a display having On'Screen Display'(OSD) capability. The HIS system includes a processor under control of an operating system, a graphics system and an electronic circuit which operates independently on the processor and the graphics system. The display receives a graphics channel with the graphics signals. An additional service channel is used for the interaction
